FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Millstone Medical Welcomes Chief Information Officer to Headquarter Facility

FALL RIVER, MA – July 26, 2018 -- Millstone Medical is pleased to announce the addition of Khrishna Mangal to its leadership team as Chief Information Officer. Khrishna joins Millstone with over two decades of experience in senior IT, supply chain and shared services operations positions.

Khrishna most recently served as a Consultant for Paragon Medical where he managed the implementation of the global ERP system and integration planning with NN Inc. Prior to Paragon, Khrishna served as Senior Director of Information Systems at Spinal Elements where he focused on the applications portfolio, design, development, deployment and support of supply chain and shared services operations. Khrishna's other experience includes seven years with global orthopedic leader, Zimmer Biomet, as Senior Director of IT – Americas and five years with Biomet, Inc. within Global Supply Chain Operations.

At Millstone, Khrishna will be responsible for all aspects of the organization's information technology strategy related to services and operations.

"Khrishna has a breadth of experience in the medical device industry," says Karl Neuberger, Chief Executive Officer at Millstone Medical. "With twenty-five successful supply chain and digital transformations of medical device manufacturing sites under his belt, we are confident in the value he will bring to our entire organization as we continue to scale our business to meet customer needs."
